

Leslie Keys

INSTRUCTOR

CANINE GOOD CITIZEN

Leslie earned her first Companion Dog title in 1979 with a German shepherd, quickly followed by earning a second Companion Dog title this time with a Springer Spaniel, at the English Springer Spaniel Specialty, with a High in Trial. She taught obedience classes for the English Springer Spaniel Club of Michigan in Livonia until motherhood and career called her away for several years. During those years she worked as a zookeeper at the Detroit Zoo, doing all the things zookeepers do, including training ostriches to come when called, doves to perch on scales, and Asian Fairy Bluebirds to catch mealworms in mid-air.

Leslie has also owned and worked Greyhounds, Kuvasz, a terrier mix, Siberian Husky and Golden Retriever. Currently she has a Border Collie, Springer Spaniel, smooth collies, and mini dachshunds. She has earned, CGCA, herding, excellent agility, rally and obedience, earth dog and barn hunt titles.
