In Memory of
Jerome "Jerry" Katz

Jerry was a long-time member and officer of the Club. His death came as a surprise to all of us. We send our sympathies to his family. He will be missed by everyone.

A REAL RETRIEVER!!! (Rene Sutton)

This Friday, Duncan and I went to my friend's house to work with Duncan. I'm driving a rental car. When I got there, I went in the building. I left Duncan in the car and left the key fob on the front passenger seat.

A few minutes later I went to get Duncan and found the car had locked itself!!! I had the back drivers-side seat window opened enough to stick part of my hand in. So now the fun begins. We tried to fish the keys out... Of course the window near the keys couldn't be open.

The first obstacle was trying to get Duncan to get in the front seat to retrieve the keys. Duncan does not break rules ... So I had to coax and convince him to jump in the front seat. I finally did convince him to but he jumped right back to the back seat. We were parked in the sun so I fed him snow through the window so he didn't overheat. We tried to fish the keys out again to no avail. I was convinced Duncan should be able to retrieve those keys.

So we convinced Duncan to go into the front. The next obstacle was to get him to turn around in the seat so he could see the keys. Now, mind you, we were trying to get him to do this from outside the car.

Back to fishing for the keys with no luck.

So I tried with Duncan one more time. I got him in the front; managed to turn him around ... Told him "head down" (I had taught him that for a trick), told him "see it" and "take it". He retrieved the lint brush lying next to the keys. We were praising him big time.

I then sent him into the front and told him, "See it"... "Take it". He got the keys, brought them into the back seat. He dropped them and picked them up and then he handed them to me through the window. GOOD BOY!! Well he is a retriever.

So the moral to this story is..... Teach your dog to retrieve KEYS!

You bring your “special dish” to the various events. Everyone loves them and would like to have the recipes! Please send in your recipe so we can share it with all

ORANGE-ALMOND SALAD

Chris Jones, S.D.T.C. (Via Jan Wheeler)

Toss crisp spinach leaves and lettuce leaves with a drained can of Mandarin oranges, bean sprouts (not out of a can) and toasted Almond slices.

Dressing

½ cup Sugar

½ cup Vinegar

1/3 cup Oil

Add dressing to greens and toss.

CRANBERRY WALNUT JELLO SALAD

Eileen Hyde

1 can (16 ounce) whole cranberry sauce

1 large 6 ounce package of strawberry flavor gelatin

2 cups boiling water

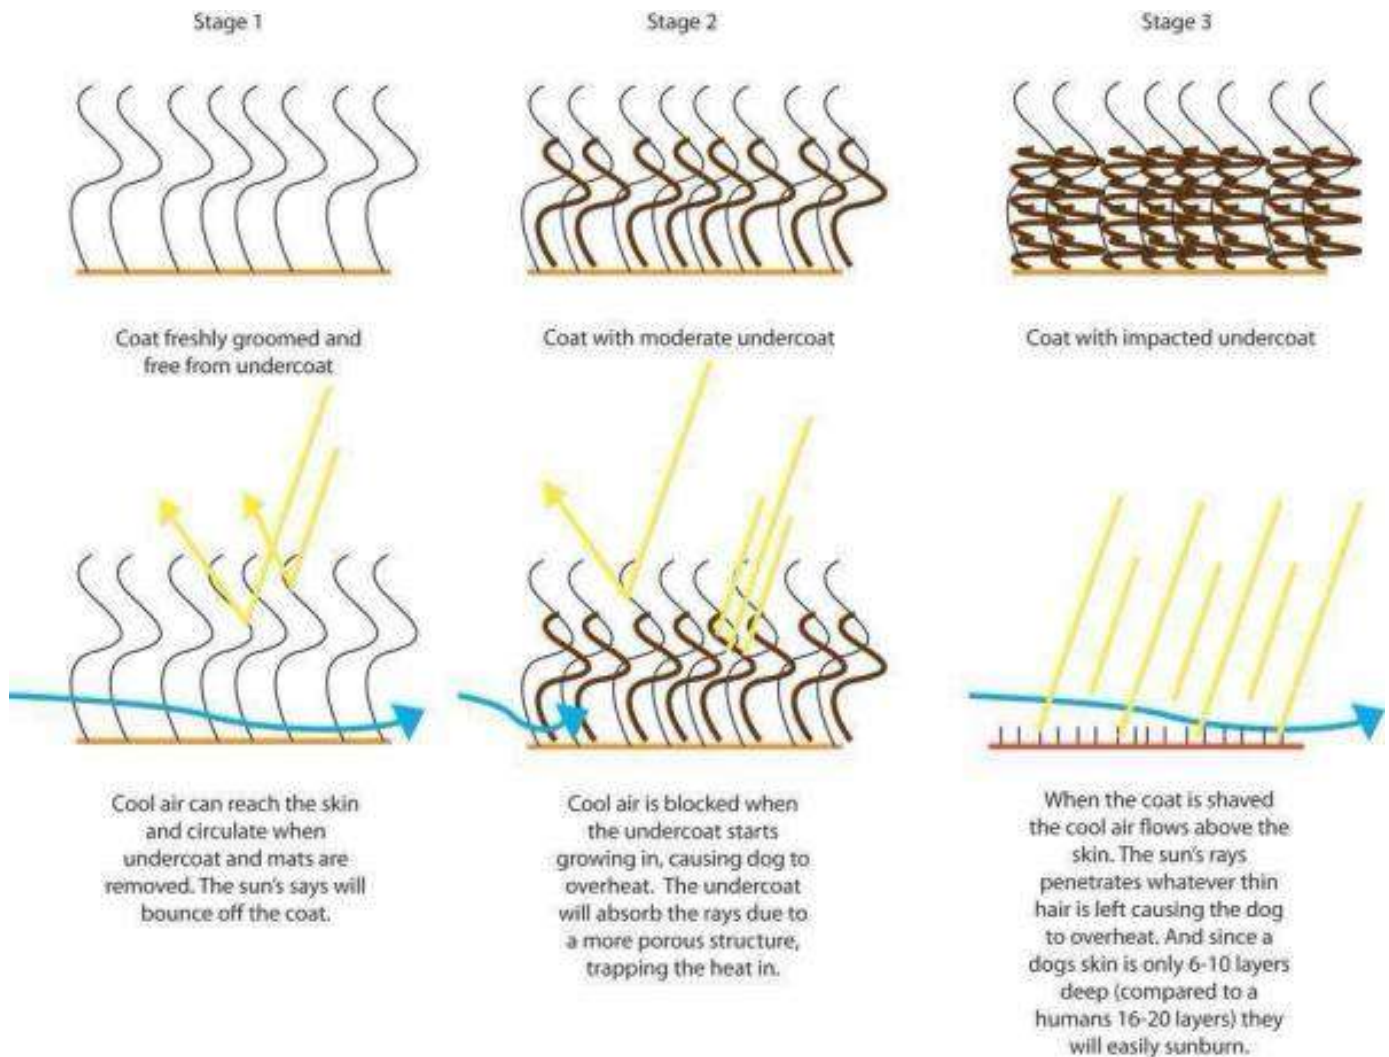

1 can (20 ounce) crushed pineapple

½ cup of chopped walnuts

Whip cranberries with a fork. In a large mold or serving bowl dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in cranberries, undrained pineapple & nuts. Refrigerate until firm.

Shaving your dog's coat – should you or shouldn't you?
